82-05

12/20/2005

AVAILABILITY OF THE TECHNICAL SERVICE CENTER's QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS (Q&As) WEB PAGE

This notice announces that the Technical Service Center has created the "TSC Questions and Answers" page on the FSIS home page. This page makes available answers provided by TSC to questions regarding new FSIS Issuances (i.e., inspection-related Directives and Notices).

TSC receives a variety of questions from inspection personnel, industry, and other interested parties. Many of these questions pertain to recent FSIS policy issuances. The new web page makes widely available these questions and answers. TSC will periodically update the page as new directives, notices, and other technical documents are issued, and it receives questions about them.

The "TSC Questions and Answers" site is available on the FSIS homepage at:
